

UNITED STATES COPYRIGHT ROYALTY JUDGES

In the Matter of:
Digital Performance in Sound Recordings And Ephemeral Recordings		Docket No. 2009-1 CRB Webcasting III

ORDER ON NOTICE OF INTENT

SoundExchange, Inc. has filed a motion for an order requiring all participants to file a notice of intention to submit a written direct statement. After the filings of Petitions to Participate, many participants have filed notices of withdrawal from the proceedings. Some partial settlements have been filed. The remaining participants and the Court will benefit from knowing which participants remain in the proceeding. All participants, who have not filed a notice of withdrawal from the proceeding are ORDERED to file a Notice of Intention to Submit a Written Direct Statement stating that they intend to submit a written direct statement in this proceeding no later than September 14, 2009. Only participants who file this affirmative notice of intention are entitled to receive service of written direct statements and remain on the service list maintained by the Court.

SO ORDERED.

_____
James Scott Sledge
US Chief Copyright Royalty Judge

DATED: August 31, 2009