THE COURSE

The course is designed for undergraduate viola students aged 18 and over, graduate students, or young professionals who may be working towards auditions, recitals or just want a 'refresher'.

There will be a minimum of 4 private lessons, participation in master classes and the opportunity to play in a public concert.

There will be a technical workshop each day primarily centered on ideas and exercises from my book 'A Notebook for Viola Players'.

My duo partner SIMON MARLOW will assist on the piano, playing for lessons, classes and concerts.

STRING QUARTET

This is an ideal opportunity to focus intensively as a quartet, daily rehearsals, frequent coaching sessions, study 1 or 2 works and perform in the final concert.
