OUR HISTORY

Rice University is among the nation’s premier institutions of higher learning. Private, nonsectarian, and coeducational, it was established with an endowment from early Texas entrepreneur William Marsh Rice and admitted its first students in 1912.

The Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management is one of seven academic units of Rice University. Named in honor of the late Jesse Holman Jones, a prominent Houston business and civic leader, the school received its initial funding in 1974 through a major gift from the Houston Endowment, Inc., a philanthropic foundation established by Jones and his wife, Mary Gibbs Jones. The school graduated its first class in 1976.

PROGRAMS

The school offers the MBA degree and joint MBA/ME and MBA/MD degrees. Rice University Executive Education offers an MBA for Executives and a full schedule of noncredit executive education and customized courses for business and industry. For information on executive education, call 713-527-6060.

IN THE HEART OF HOUSTON

Rice University is located on a spectacular 300-acre campus in central Houston at 6100 Main Street, across the street from the Texas Medical Center and in the midst of one of Houston’s most beautiful neighborhoods. It’s convenient to the downtown business district and within walking distance of Rice Village, an eclectic shopping district with nationally known merchants, one-of-a-kind shops, and affordable restaurants that feature more than a dozen ethnic and regional cuisines.

The Rice campus is well-contained and easy to navigate. Herring Hall, home of the Jones Graduate School, is just across the street from the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy.

TRANSPORTATION

Cab rides from George Bush International Airport or Hobby Airport are expensive. We recommend taking a shuttle to the Texas Medical Center, then taking a taxi to campus.

Driving: From U.S. 59, exit Shepherd/Greenbriar. Travel south on Greenbriar; turn left onto Rice Blvd. Enter campus at Entrance 13 off of Rice Blvd. and proceed to visitor parking on the right, across from the student center. The Jones Graduate School is located in Herring Hall, one-half block from visitor parking, along College Way/Loop Road.
