

The Sarmatian Review (ISSN 1059-5872)

is a triannual publication of the Polish Institute of Houston. The journal deals with Polish, Central, and Eastern European affairs, and it explores their implications for the United States. We specialize in the translation of documents. Sarmatian Review is indexed in the American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies, EBSCO, and P.A.I.S. International Database. From January 1998 on, files in PDF format are available at the Central and Eastern European Online Library (www.ceeol.com). Subscription price is $21.00 per year for individuals, $28.00 for institutions and libraries ($28.00 for individuals, $35.00 for libraries overseas, air mail). The views expressed by authors of articles do not necessarily represent those of the Editors or of the Polish Institute of Houston. Articles are subject to editing. Unsolicited manuscripts and other materials are not returned unless accompanied by a self-addressed and stamped envelope. Please submit your contribution electronically and, if requested, send a printout by air mail. Submissions and Letters to the Editor can be emailed to <sarmatia@rice.edu>, with an accompanying mailing return address. Other letters and subscription queries should be emailed to <sarmatianreview@yahoo.com>. Subscription checks should be mailed to The Sarmatian Review, P. O. Box 79119, Houston, Texas 77279-9119. The Sarmatian Review retains the copyright for all materials included in print and online issues.
