

About the Authors

Rafal Bilski is a high school teacher and a freelance translator residing in Poland.

Marek Jan Chodakiewicz is Professor of History and Academic Dean at the Institute of World Politics in Washington, DC. He is the 2003 laureate of the Józef Mackiewicz Prize administered by Rzeczpospolita. His numerous books include Spanish Carlism and Polish Nationalism: The Borderlands of Europe in the 19th and 20th Centuries (2003); and After the Holocaust: Polish-Jewish Relations in the Wake of World War II (2003).

Katarzyna Dziwirek is Professor in Slavic Languages and Literatures at the University of Washington. Her book (with Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk), Complex Emotions and Grammatical Mismatches: A Contrastive Corpus-Based Study, is forthcoming from Mouton De Gruyter in Berlin.

Patricia A. Gajda is Professor of History and Director of Graduate Program at the University of Texas at Tyler. Agnieszka Gutthy is Professor in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Southeastern Louisiana University. Her most recent book is Exile and the Narrative/Poetic Imagination (2010).

Theresa Kurk McGinley is Professor of History at the Lone Star College-North Harris in Houston, Texas. Her doctoral dissertation, "The Cry for Human Rights: The History of the Polish Displaced Persons Problem and U.S. Foreign Policy," initiated a historical preservation project to collect oral histories from Polish survivors of the Second World War.

Christopher A. Zakrzewski, laureate of the 2010 Sarmatian Review literary prize, teaches at the Our Lady the Seat of Wisdom Academy in Barry's Bay, Ontario, Canada.

Thank You Note

We would like to thank the following persons for their generous contribution to the Sarmatian Review Publication Fund in April-August 2010: Professor Anthony Bukoski; Professor Richard J. Hunter, Jr.; Mr. Richard C. Prusinski; Mr. William J. Zoltowicz.

Announcements and Notes

Kresy-Siberia Foundation

In 2009, Polish survivors of the Siberian gulag and their descendants established a Foundation whose goal is to promote and support research, remembrance, and recognition of Polish citizens' struggles in the Eastern Borderlands and in Exile during the Second World War. Persons with ties to the Polish Borderlands and their descendants are urged to join the Kresy-Siberia Foundation.

The Foundation was registered in Poland as a non-profit. Registration in other countries is pending. The website: www.Kresy-Siberia.org. Further information can be obtained from the website.

Below is a list of individuals whom one can contact for more information:

Australia - New Zealand: Stefan Wiśniowski, Foundation President (Sydney), +61-4-1186-4873 cell, Stefan.Wisniowski@Kresy-Siberia.org

UK: George Neisser, Foundation Director (Manchester), +44-12572-79145 or 44-77379-98123 cell, Jerzy.Neisser@Kresy-Siberia.org

USA: Witold Łukaszewski, Foundation Director (Houston), +1-936-271-0305 or +1-979-229-9942 cell, Witold.Lukaszewski@Kresy-Siberia.org

Or: Eugene Bąk, Kresy-Siberia (USA) President (Cleveland), +1-440-899-1608, genebak@aol.com

Canada: Krystyna Szypowska, Foundation Director (Kingston), +1-613-531-5999, Krystyna.Szypowska@Kresy-Siberia.org

Poland: Aneta Hoffmann, Foundation General Manager (Warsaw), +48-502-870-596, Aneta.Hoffmann@Kresy-Siberia.org

Unloading sugar beet leaves in Stęszew, a village near Poznań, in prewar Poland. Louise A. Boyd, Polish Countrysides (New York, 1937).