Docket No. 2009-1
CRB Webcasting III

INTERROGATORY

To: College Broadcasters Inc. ("CBI");

With respect to the statements under the heading "Proposed Settlement" within
Mr. Robedee's prepared testimony filed September 29, 2009:

1. At various points therein he refers to negotiations between SoundExchange and CBI leading up to the agreement between CBI and SoundExchange filed with the Office at the end of July, 2009, published in the Federal Register on or about August 12, 2009, and filed under your joint petition to the CRJs on August 13, 2009. On behalf of which non-commercial educational and commercial webcasters did CBI (a) seek to negotiate and (b) sign on behalf of, indicating in your answer as to each such entity named whether (a) or (b), or both, tabulating entries in categories (a) and (b) by their annual budgets or estimates thereof and indicating as to each entry the numbers of, or estimates of, paid, non-teaching-faculty staff? For the purpose of this interrogatory, non-teaching-faculty staff excludes faculty appointees and employees of the parent institutions currently teaching regular in-classroom courses for which academic credit is awarded.

DOCUMENT REQUESTS

To: College Broadcasters:

You are requested to produce copies of the following documents in your possession or under your control:

1. Copies of those formal corporate documents, e.g., state certificate of incorporation, by-laws, directors' resolutions, and the like defining (i) CBI's current corporate purposes, (ii) current and past membership categories or classes and the qualifications for each..
2. Copies of documents sufficient to show the names of all directors, officers, and employees of CBI in calendar 2008 and in calendar 2009, respectively, with their respective titles, duties, responsibilities, and concurrent affiliations relating to broadcasting and webcasting.

These are continuing interrogatories.
